NUMBER 34.

SPEAKS TONIGHT

CONGRESSMAN DIES, TEXAS

Washington, D. C., June 7, 1935.
Editor Herald,
Hamlin, Texas.

Gentlemen:
More than 100 patriotic organizations and societies are sponsoring an American Evening Hour over the National Broadcasting System the night of June 21 between 10:30 and 11:00 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time, which is 9:30 to 10 o'clock, P. M. our time.

Congressman Martin Dies, of Texas, will speak on the subject, "The Alien Menace to America." The local groups of these patriotic orders will be in session to listen to this program. Congressman Dies is an able speaker and the outstanding National leader in the effort to restrict immigration and deport the millions of aliens who are unlawfully in our country. We plan to have millions of people to listen in and we think this is a most important program in the effort to combat un-American activities and propaganda.

R. R. ROBERTS INJURED

IN PLANE CRASH

R. R. Roberts, of Gladewater, was injured in a plane crash at Ranger, Thursday afternoon, June 13, at four o'clock, when he attempted to land his plane because of a high wind.

Mr. Roberts, who formerly lived in Hamlin, had spent a part of the day here on business and visiting friends. He is an employee of the Humble Oil and Refining Company and was returning to Gladewater when his ship encountered the gale. He began his descent but settled to approximately 300 feet when he turned downwind. According to witnesses, Roberts nosed his plane up and banked, but went into a tailspin.

He crashed from about 300 feet. The plane was badly damaged, but Roberts escaped with no broken bones. He was taken to a Ranger Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Roy Stine and little son, of Vernon, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adkins, and other relatives.

HAMLIN DEFEATED HASKELL SUNDAY

Lefty Courtney again proved his superiority over Hambricht by letting Haskell down with six scattered hits, eight strike-outs and no scores. Hamlin's only earned run came in the sixth when Ensey doubled to left field and scored on Coffey's double to center. The final score was Hamlin 4, Haskell 0.

HAMLIN BALL CLUB PLAYS

HILTON HOTEL 9 AT HAMLIN

LIN PARK NEXT FRIDAY

The Hilton Hotel Semi-Pro Base Ball Club will invade the Hamlin Ball Park next Friday afternoon at 3:30 P. M. for a game with the local club.

This game should be an interesting one as the Hilton Hotel has assembled a fast organization of local talent supplemented with players from the various colleges in Abilene's trade territory. It is expected that either McCracken, Ace right-hander, or L. D. Jones of Trent will do the hurling for the Hilton nine. Ace McCracken is one of the best right handed pitchers in this section, while L. D. Jones, a left-hander, won a NO-HIT, NO-RUN decision over the Hilton nine last week when he was pitching for the Trent team. Spider Miers or Lefty Courtney will do the hurling for the local team.

This game will start promptly at 3:30 and admission prices will be 20c, two for 35c for adults, and 5c for children.

WEST TEXAS UTIL. CO.

PRESENT

MISS ILAH MANCHESTER IN FREE COOKING SCHOOL

Miss Ilah Manchester, who will conduct the West Texas Utilities free electric cooking school here June 25-26, at the High School auditorium, has been in charge of similar schools in all sections of the United States. She has a national reputation as an authority on Electric Cookery and she has spoken before thousands upon the subject of better food preparation.

A graduate of Home Economics, Syracuse University, and a member of the Home Economists' Bureau of Edison General Electric Appliance Company, Inc., makers of Hotpoint ranges, Miss Manchester has directed Electric Cookery Classes in many leading universities and colleges. In addition, she has had charge of electric cooking school in such cities as Albany, Auburn and Buffalo, New York; Trenton and Newark, New Jersey; Philadelphia and Harrisburg, Pa.; Hagerstown and Baltimore, Md. and Milwaukee and Madison, Wisc.

In anticipation of her visit here, Miss Manchester has been working for some time on a series of exceptional demonstrations in Electric Cookery and she will have a number of excellent and novel recipes. In keeping with present conditions and the trend toward economical meals she has built her school program upon a strictly economical basis. At the same time, each dish will be well balanced and nourishing, appetizing and attractive. As a result of her extensive training and experience in the field of Electric Cookery, she will be able to offer housewives numerous up-to-date ideas in modern home making. Miss Manchester was brought here by the West Texas Utilities Company, distributors of Hotpoint ranges in this territory.

"We expect to bring home makers of Hamlin a program which will interest every housewife," Miss Manchester says. "We will present in dramatized fashion, new ideas in cooking and home making. We will show women how they may economize, how they may prepare inexpensive meals, how they may obtain more leisure time for themselves, and how they may eliminate kitchen drudgery."

The program will be varied daily and plans are now being made for an entertainment program, in addition to the demonstrations of Electric Cookery.

DEATH CLAIMS

John L. Eakin, on of Jones County's pioneer citizens, died at his home on Central Avenue, Wednesday morning at 8:45 o'clock. Mr. Eakin has been in ill health for a number of years and on Saturday afternoon he became seriously ill and gradually grew worse until death came.

Mr. Eakin was born in Virginia, August 1, 1855 and at the time of his death he was nearing his eightieth birthday. At the age of seventeen he came to Texas and made his home in Hunt County. Here on May 22, 1876 he was married to Miss Immo Kennedy. His wife, four children, eleven grandchildren, three great grandchildren and an only brother, W. D. Eakin, of this city, survive him.

The children are Mrs. Dora Boyd, Sweetwater, T. C. Eakin, Sweetwater, a salesman for the Radford Grocery Company, Mrs. J. L. Prowell, of Clovis, New Mexico, and J. B. Eakin, City Secretary of Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Eakin came to Jones County in 1896 and settled on a section of land one mile northwest of where the city of Hamlin is now located. At this time Hamlin was not even a dream, only the broad boundless prairie stretched out to greet this pioneer family. Later Mr. Eakin purchased land in the Neinda community and established a stock farm where he lived until a few years ago when he retired, and moved with his wife to their home in Hamlin.

When a very small boy, John Eakin was converted and united with the Baptist Church. While residing in Hunt County he was made a deacon in the Baptist Church and served in that capacity for many years. At the time of his death he was a member and a deacon in the Hamlin Baptist Church and was faithful in his services until prevented by ill health. Mr. Eakin possessed a happy, optimistic nature, always ready with a cheery greeting and smile for his friends and neighbors.

He was a very active Mason during a long period of his life and his burial was under Masonic auspices. Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church of Hamlin, at three o'clock Thursday afternoon, conducted by the pastor Rev. J. Henry Littleton.

Interment was made in the Neinda Cemetery under the direction of Barrow Undertaking Company.

HAMLIN TO HAVE

MID-WEEK BALL GAMES

Owing to the fact that there are a number of good loyal base ball fans who do not attend base ball games on Sunday, and owing to the fact that the Hamlin Ball Club's manager was over-ruled concerning mid-week games by the other clubs in the Wichita Valley League, the local club is planning to play a series of ball games with the best clubs available during the middle of the week. The first of these games has been scheduled this afternoon at the local park with the Hilton Hotel nine from Abilene. This club is supposed to be good, having held the Haskell team to a 2 to 0 decision during the earlier part of the year. Since that time it has been strengthened by boys returning home from college and other points. It is hoped that the local fans will respond to the local club's efforts to give them the best ball games possible during the week, and that they will show their appreciation for such efforts by giving them a large attendance. The larger the attendance the easier it will be to attract the better clubs to Hamlin.

Don't wash all your hat because the band is spoiled.

Miss Lena Smith of Colorado, Texas, who has been a guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. C. Ferguson, left for Fort Worth Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner, of Wichita, Kansas, spent the past week end here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Buford Dean.

Mrs. G. R. Bennett, Miss Edwina Gilbert, J. C. Turner, Jr., and Marvin York, Jr. returned Monday from a trip to Flint, Mich., and points in Canada. While away, Mrs. Bennett purchased a new Chevrolet car.

C. C. JOBSON

GOES TO LUBBOCK

C. C. Jobson who for the past six and one half years has served as County Agent of Jones County, was transferred to Lubbock where he took up his duties as County Agent for Lubbock, Monday. Mr. Jobson was succeeded in this county by R. H. Maxwell, farm agent in Haskell County.

Mr. Maxwell is a graduate of A. & M. College. He has taught vocational agriculture for five years and has been agent of Haskell County the past two years. He took up his duties in Anson Monday.

Mr. Jobson makes the following statement:

TO THE PEOPLE OF

JONES COUNTY

I want to take this opportunity to thank the people of Jones County for the many courtesies and considerations shown both my family and me during the past six and a half years while endeavoring to serve your county as County Agent.

Due to the fact that it is considered a distinct promotion, we are moving to Lubbock to serve that county in the same capacity.

Mr. R. H. Maxwell will go on duty in this county, June 16, and I sincerely trust that you will see fit to ry.

FARMERS' SHORT COURSE TO BE HELD AT COLLEGE STATION

COLLEGE STATION—Plans are nearly completed for five days of elaborate program for the farm women of Texas at the Farmers' Short Course, July 28 through August 2, it was announced by Miss Onah Jacks, Extension specialist, and chairman of the women's program committee.

Outstanding speakers, demonstrations, laboratory work, and recreation will be the keynote of the women's program this year.

Miss Margaret Furry, textile chemist from the division of textiles and clothing, Department of Agriculture and Bureau of Home Economics, Washington, D. C., has accepted an invitation to take charge of a series of laboratory demonstrations on "Natural Dyes and How to Use Them."

Dr. Samuel E. Gideon, professor of architectural design and history from the University of Texas at Austin, will speak on the program of Housing and Home Improvement which varies from architecture to landscaping and interior decorating.

Some of the demonstrations will be on: Making Soil and Potting Plants; Making Purses and Moccasins; Repairing and Painting Farm Houses; Cleaning Fine Fabrics; Wool Scouring; Control of Rose Pests; Attractive Touches to Bedrooms; Interior Decoration; and many other phases of farm life of interest to Texas farm women.

Each day will be divided into morning sessions consisting of meetings and talks by well-known men and women and Extension specialists on Texas farm life and its phases; the afternoons will be devoted to a series of demonstration programs. The program, as planned, will have a section on Texas Folk Lore and History.

On the last afternoon, Dr. T. O.

Walton, president of A. and M. College, and Mrs. Walton will be hosts at a reception held on the president's lawn in honor of the Texas farm women attending the Short Course.

Recreation hours consisting of entertainment and relaxation have been planned for each day while the Short Course is in motion.

PREVENT TYPHUS FEVER

Austin, Texas, June 20.—Wars have been lost by generals and won by epidemics of rat-borne diseases, according to Dr. Hans Zinzer in his recent book—Rats, Lice, and History. Texas has more of the disease than Dr. Zinzer has written about, typhus fever, than any other state, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

There are two types of typhus fever—the epidemic or Old World type, and the epidemic or New World type, known as Brill's Disease. In the former the death rate is very high and in the latter, commonly found in Texas, it is very low. The most cases appear during the hot months. The rat and mouse are the reservoirs of this disease and it is spread to man by fleas, lice, or ticks that have fed on an infected rat. The cycle being rat-flea-man.

The symptoms of typhus fever are very similar to those of typhoid fever, except the course of typhus is generally two weeks. The onset of the disease is usually sudden with chills, fever, headache, and general body pains. Nausea may be present. The fever rises rapidly to a maximum of 105 degrees. There is also a reddish mottling of the skin and a hacking cough is generally present.

Typhus fever could be prevented by the eradication of rats and mice. This would not only result in the prevention of much suffering but would be of great economic value as it is estimated that the damage by rodents amounts to about twelve million dollars annually in Texas.

TEXAS FACTS

"Your name and fame will be enrolled against the greatest chieftains," Andrew Jackson, wrote his former lieutenant—Sam Houston, following his victory at San Jacinto.

The census of Nacogdoches in 1833 was 1272 as follows: bachelors, 319; spinsters, 291; married couples, 122; widowers, 9; widows, 34; and minors, 375.

Thomas J. Rusk came to Texas when he was 29 years old in search of a promoter who had swindled him of his fortune in a Georgia gold mine deal. He caught the swindler but the latter had lost Rusk's money at the gaming table.

Col. James W. Fannin, a Georgian, was a graduate of the United States Military Academy and resigned his commission in the United States Army to lead a life of adventure.

The Texas Declaration of Independence was signed by men from ten American States, and six foreign countries, as follows: Virginia, 11; Tennessee, 9; North Carolina, 9; Kentucky, 5; South Carolina, 4; Georgia, 4; Pennsylvania, 2; New York, 2; Massachusetts, 1; New Jersey, 1; Mexico, 3; Ireland, 1; Scotland, 1; England, 1; Canada, 1; and three are unknown.

Texas sold a portion of five states—Oklahoma, Kansas, Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico, covering 100,000 square miles of land to the United States government for $10,000,000.

America came into the country directly due to the Texas revolution, as most of it lies within the states carved from the Mexican acquisition following America's War with Mexico over the annexation of Texas.

Mexico offered in 1844 to recognize the Independence of Texas provided it would not seek annexation to the United States of America. A few months following this offer of recognition, the Republic of Texas was admitted as a state into the United States.

Moses Austin was a Spanish subject before he ever had his "dream" of colonizing Texas. He swore allegiance to the flag of Spain when he removed from Virginia to Missouri to go into the lead mine business. What later became the Louisiana Purchase was at that time under Spanish control due to a treaty existing between Spain and France. Spain later ceded the territory back to France and the latter nation sold it to the United States.

Despite the fact that there are many coal deposits in Texas and that many of them have been mined profitably, natural gas in the state has practically ended the coal mine business. Texas is noted throughout the land as a state with clean cities, due to the use of natural gas.

When Sam Houston first took charge of the Texas forces as their Commander-in-Chief he sent orders to Col. Wm. B. Travis to dynamite the Alamo, which he termed a "death trap" and told Col. Travis to retreat. Both these orders were disobeyed.

Banks Rapidly Reduce Debt

Although the sum of $1,860,000,000 has been advanced to banks and trust companies by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation since it began operations in February, 1932, down to April 30, 1935, these institutions have repaid no less than $1,340,000,000, or more than 72%. This rate of repayment is reported as being considerably in excess of that made by any other type of borrower.

Loans were authorized by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to 7,396 banks and trust companies in an aggregate amount of $2,350,000,000, but of this sum $345,000,000 was withdrawn or cancelled and $140,000,000 has not yet been taken out by the borrowers.

Simplification of Bank Checks

New York.—In a bulletin issued by the Bank Management Commission of the American Bankers Association, plans are described for carrying on the simplification of bank checks, notes, drafts and similar instruments in respect to size and uniformity of arrangement of subject matter.

Detailed recommendations for this end were formulated by the association about ten years ago, the bulletin says, and promulgated by the United States Department of Commerce among banks, business houses using large numbers of checks, commercial stationers and lithographers. As a result about 85 per cent adherence to the recommendations was brought about. The present bulletin, which describes the standard specifications in full, is issued to maintain this high level of adherence to the recommendations.

National Bank Notes

Changes in our money on the scale of about $800,000,000 are now going on through the retirement of national bank notes. This is reflected in increasing deposits in the Treasury of lawful money to replace bonds held against outstanding notes which will require some time for withdrawal from circulation.

The change in the currency will require a considerable shift of bank funds in many cases, but it is doubtful if so large a volume of currency has ever been retired and replaced in any country with so little disturbance.

Rosendahl Defends Use of Dirigibles; Drive Launched for Construction

America's Foremost Air-ship Expert Cites Record of Graf Zeppelin in Commercial Service in Defense of Lighter-Than-Air Craft

"SINCE the War, submarine accidents have caused two and a half times as great a loss of life as air-ships; marine disasters forty times, railroads 300 times, automobiles, 1,000 times; yet we hear no talk of discontinuing construction of submarines, steamships, railroads, or automobiles," cried Lt. Comdr. Charles E. Rosendahl, U.S.N., before the Society of Automotive Engineers, meeting in New York.

Slender, youthful, assured, a striking figure in naval uniform, the man who is considered one of America's foremost experts on the construction and navigation of air-ships made a brilliant defense of dirigibles both for peace and war, reports The Literary Digest. His

Even Prof. Alexander Klemm, head of the Guggenheim School of Aeronautics at New York University, known as a vigorous "heavier-than-air" adherent, said he agreed, for the most part, with Commander Rosendahl, and urged only relatively minor technical objections.

Advantages of Dirigibles
Briefly, advantages of dirigibles over air-planes are:

address is expected to launch a new campaign in this country for continued construction of large rigid air-ships for naval defense and commercial development.

It was the first public offering of "lighter-than-air" advocates since the loss of the Macon at sea off the California Coast, on February 14, roused a storm of opposition to further air-ship construction.

No Real Opposition
In the audience were engineers and scientists of international reputation, several of whom, it was reported, had come for the purpose of "blowing up" the air-ship idea. If this was the case, they must have become converted before the hour of questioning arrived, for no very real opposition appeared.

1. Large load-capacity.
 2. Long cruising-range.
 3. Ability to go slowly, or even stop in midair, without falling.
- As commercial carriers of passengers, dirigibles since the War have hung up a record untouched by any other type of transport. More than half a million paying passengers have been carried, without the loss or injury of a single passenger.
- The Graf Zeppelin, for example, since September, 1928, and up to December, 1934, had made 423 individual trips, flying a distance of 630,000 miles. She had carried 10,500 passengers, at a speed averaging sixty miles an hour; mail to the extent of 57,500 pounds; freight, 96,000 pounds. Her total time in the air was 10,005 hours.

Second Largest Diamond Bought

American Buys Stone Insured for $1,000,000

HARRY WINSTON, New York City gem-dealer, has bought the Jonker Diamond, world's second largest, from the Diamond Corporation, Ltd., of London, The Literary Digest reports.

Winston, saying that he "wanted the finest gem in the world," is reputed to have paid £150,000 for the stone. It is insured for at least $1,000,000 by the St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Co.

Cullinan Largest
The largest uncut diamond in history weighed 3,025 1/2 carats. It was christened the Cullinan Diamond, after the chairman of the company which discovered it.

The Jonker Diamond, uncut, weighs 726 carats. Emerald-cut, it would be the second largest cut stone—weighing about 425 carats. The uncut stone will be shipped to this country soon.

MR. AND MRS. REYNOLDS

COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

A lovely shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Reynolds Thursday evening, June 13 at 8:30 o'clock in the Methodist Church Social hall amid a setting of lovely ferns and a decoration of white and delicate pink.

The Beacon class of which Mrs. Reynolds was a regular member, was the gracious host.

Guests were greeted by sisters of the bride, Misses Oleta and Ila Carlton, and Mrs. W. W. Collier, who requested each guest to sign the beautiful hand painted Bride's Book, a gift from the bride's mother, Mrs. D. W. Carlton.

After an hour of interesting games each guest was numbered to go on a treasure hunt to find treasures with their corresponding numbers which of course only the bride and groom found. The treasure proved to be a huge basket of many beautiful and useful gifts.

After the gifts had been passed and admired by each one present, the bride and groom each expressed their sincere thanks and appreciation for this token of esteem and friendship extended them by their many friends.

A plate of delicious ice cream and cake was served to the following guests: Mary Lou Bailey, Opie and Lillis Mae Stone, Louise Proctor, Ernestine Hurley, Adele Watson, Dorothy Marie Whitlocke, Oleta and Ila Carlton, Mina Fay Cotten, Naomi Rupert, Judy Walshe, Mr. and Mrs. Collier Porterfield, Mrs. Ed Bailey, Mrs. D. W. Carlton, Louise and Mrs. W. J. Reynolds, Mrs. W. W. Collier, Mrs. J. C. Whitlocke, Mrs. W. H. Gilbert, James E. Bailey, Jr., W. W. Collier, Jr., C. O. LaRue, Jr., Jack Wilson, Mary Beth Moody, Ray Willingham, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Reynolds.

Those sending gifts who were not present were Mr. and Mrs. M. P. May and John, and Mrs. J. K. Reynolds.

NO INTERRUPTION

of YOUR GAS SERVICE

as Texas Streams Burst Banks!

With torrential flood waters swirling at many points between you and the gas wells, Lone Star Gas System again has met the threat of the elements. Bridging the gas wells and your gas appliances, this dependable system has conquered the hazard and kept your service uninterrupted.

The greatest and most widespread floods in the history of this company have threatened the gas pipe lines at many points. As the waters rushed on over the country-side, men stood by these lines day and night ready for any break. While bridges went down and roads were washed out and traffic was halted, the gas lines held intact.

This dependable service is not an accident. It is due to a quarter of a century of planning and huge expenditures of money. Seven pipe line bridges across swollen streams, heavy steel pipe laid deep in the ground, a well trained organization, are among the facilities which have made this gas system able to meet the unprecedented flood conditions.

The ability of your gas company to serve you during emergencies is, after all, the supreme test of service. The significant fact is that the facilities and organization necessary to keep your service constantly dependable in such an emergency must stand by throughout every day of the year waiting your instant call.

Stamford and Western Gas Co

American Beauty roses adorned rooms where three tables of contract were in play. High score for the club was made by Mrs. Q. Martin, and Mrs. Holly Toler scored high for guests. A salad course with cake and punch was served.

Members present were Mmes. C. G. Green, J. F. Taylor, F. B. Moore, Q. Martin, J. T. Bynum, C. C. Prater, Arche Pardue, and B. L. Jones. Guests were Mmes. Mac Brundage, D. D. Harden, Mrs. Holly Toler and Miss Adele Barbisch, of Austin.

STAMFORD'S ANNUAL COWBOY REUNION

WILL FEATURE NEW AND VARIED ENTERTAINMENT

Horses known for their aerial gymnastics rather than fleetness will be selected for the wild-horse race, which will be a new feature of the rodeo at the Sixth Annual Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held at Stamford, July 2, 3, and 4.

The race will be included in the program of each afternoon and night rodeo performance but not at the morning matinees. Four wild horses will be placed in the bucking chutes barebacked, but with halter and rope. At the starting signal, the horses will be released from the chutes and each contestant and his helper must saddle his wild bronc and ride the length of the arena and return. The one crossing the finishing line first wins the race. As the horses are calculated to do more bucking than running, the outcome of the race will be difficult to predict. Only four contestants will be allowed to enter at each performance.

Another unique feature of the Reunion rodeo each year is the contest for the best cutting-horse. The contest is judged on the performance and ability of the horse as well as the skill of the rider. Eight horses judged best in an elimination contest to be held at the morning show July 3 will compete in the finals on the afternoon of July 4. First prize is a hand-made saddle. Claude Jeffers, wagon boss of the Matador ranch, Matador, and his cowpony, "Highpower," won the contest last year.

One of the favorite events of the rodeo is the special calf-roping contest for cowboys over 55 years of age. Ed Powers, 57, Brackenridge, won the coveted saddle in this contest last year.

Besides the special features, the rodeo includes the usual cowboy sports of calf-roping, wild-cow-milking, steer-riding, and bronc busting. These events will be staged each day. Day money totaling $1,600 will be awarded in these events, besides the handsome hand-made saddles which go to the champions in each contest.

The rodeo arena, with improvements made this year, has a seating capacity of 10,000, which is expected to care for the crowds even at the peak shows. However, visitors will likely find the night performances more pleasant due to the cooler night air. Performances will begin each day at 8:30 A.M., 2:00 P.M., and 8:00 P.M. The usual low admission prices will prevail, general admission to the afternoon and night shows being 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children, and grandstand seats 25 cents additional. The charge for the morning matinee will be 25 cents for everyone. All tickets are tax-free due to the fact that the Reunion is a no-dividend organization.

METHODIST CHURCH

Someone has accused this generation of being mentally lazy. Is that a fair accusation or just some one individual who happens to be a lover of ease trying to soothe his own pains by the idea, "I'm as good as other folks." We will have to give this generation credit for one thing, it is not following in the ruts of former generations. It is thinking sufficiently to make the Christian world investigate the foundations of its religion. Such questions as these are being asked the Church: "Of what use is religion?" "What do you mean by God?" "Can one know God?" Few have the courage to voice their thoughts but it is evident that numbers of our outstanding citizens, as far as the business world is concerned, have passed religion up as being non-worth. Our subject Sunday 10:45 to 11:30 will be "What Is Christianity Worth to the Twentieth Century Man?" Is it just a fad or does it really have inherent value for the people of today?

Thursday, 8:00 P. M., June 27th, Mrs. Charlie Rowe, wife of the Minister in the Colored Methodist Church of Hamlin, will bring her class of singers to the Methodist Church for an hour of entertainment by singing the "Negro Spirituals." A collection will be taken to go into a piano fund they are raising. It will not only be of interest to you but will enable them to get a piano for their church. At present they have no musical instrument.

Again I call your attention to the Vacation Bible School that will begin on July 1st, and hold a session each morning of that week. We want your children to enter and enjoy these helpful hours spent in story telling, Bible study, singing, and recreation. We will be looking for you Sunday at 9:45 for Church School.

W. M. SOCIETY

The Woman's Missionary Society met Monday, June 17, at the home of Miss Ella Temple with Mmes. Garner and Joe McCrary as joint hostesses for a study and social meeting.

There was a good attendance and interesting papers were given by Mrs. Clinton Barrow and Mrs. Oscar Maples, a Counsel Letter by Mrs. Sauls and the devotional by Mrs. M. T. Hudson.

Next Monday Bible study will be led by Mrs. Bill Rountree in the Methodist Church at four o'clock. We invite anyone who will, to come join us.

During the social hour a lovely plate of ice cream and cake was served by the hostesses.

MORE NAZARENE BUILDING NEWS

A CORRECTION

Last week we placed in the Herald a statement to the effect that we would have our new church far enough advanced in building, to hold our summer revival in. Well, in the first place this writer has been so busy that he had lost all reckoning of time and was thinking that he was in the first week of June instead of the last part of the second week, at the time the statement was written. And in the second place, if all the things this scribe don't know about building, as to the time it requires to build, were written in a book, the book would be bigger than a man could push in a wheelbarrow. Then again my heart is literally aflame with desire to rapidly build, and this desire simply outweighed my judgment. So, our revival meeting is postponed till a later date, exact time to be announced, perhaps next week.

We are at this time wrecking the buildings on the campus, and the material is being placed on our church lot, and the actual work on the erection of our new church will start the very day the wrecking is finished.

Try CARDUI For Functional Monthly Pains

Women from the 'teen age to the change of life have found Cardui genuinely helpful for the relief of functional monthly pains due to lack of just the right strength from the food they eat. Mrs. Crit Haynes, of Essex, Mo., writes: "I used Cardui when a girl for cramps and found it very beneficial. I have recently taken Cardui during the change of life. I was very nervous, had head and back pains and was in a generally run-down condition. Cardui has helped me greatly."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Milk In Disguise

"Doctor," began a worried mother. "Betty is complaining again about drinking milk. Does she really need so much?"

"Yes, she does," the doctor replied, "and that isn't just my opinion. We know it is true from countless scientific experiments. The findings have been checked and tested over and over again. Betty is growing. She needs the minerals of milk for her bones. She needs the vitamins to keep her healthy and growing. And we know that most children need the full quart, to get their share."

"I know you're right," the mother said, "I'll keep after her." "No, don't keep after her. That may give her a real dislike for milk. Try some disguise instead. Let's see now. There's ice cream and junket; custards and puddings; milk on berries; crackers and milk; cereals; egg-nogg. I'm sure you know of many other ways."

"How about cheese? Have you tried that? And perhaps Betty won't notice the change if you offer her a glass of cool milk in the middle of the morning and the afternoon instead of at meals."

"I see what you mean, doctor. Thanks, I'll try it."

How can parents make swimming safer? Dr. Ireland will discuss this in his next article.

Banned Books

Ireland Most Censorious Country; Boston Most Puritanic City

IRELAND is the most censorious country over printed works, Boston appears to be the most puritanic city, and China, or at least one of its provincial governors, found "Alice in Wonderland" objectionable, says The Literary Digest. These estimations arise out of an exhibition of books which have been banned for moral, religious, or political reasons from the time of Confucius to the present. The exhibition is at the Junior League of New York City.

Historical Bans

The Chinese governor acted against "Alice in Wonderland" because he felt that to give animals human speech placed people and beasts on the same level and that, to him, was offensive.
